MCBA Artist Co-op Application

Thank you for your interest in the MCBA artist cooperative! Through this cooperative, members have access to a wide range of bookbinding, papermaking and printing equipment and the opportunity to share techniques and ideas with other artists.

Membership in the MCBA artist co-op is designed for individuals who have demonstrated an appropriate level of experience in the book arts discipline/s they plan to work in. We require all artist co-op members to have the ability to use the facilities and equipment correctly, independently, safely, and with consideration for other members.

Prospective members need to read the co-op guidelines (available for download from the MCBA website), complete and submit an application form, interview with members of the artist cooperative at a monthly co-op meeting, and complete a thorough studio and safety orientation before using the studios.

Prospective members in the MCBA artist co-op must be willing and able to commit to at least 6 months' membership. The $150 monthly fee is payable in total or through a combination of money and volunteer hours. For each hour of volunteer time, members receive an $11 credit in their monthly fee, up to $55. Prospective co-op members must also be current MCBA members.
