ii. Fellowship Overview

Founded on the belief that Minnesota thrives when its artists thrive, the McKnight Foundation’s arts program is one of the oldest and largest of its kind in the country. Support for individual working Minnesota artists has been a cornerstone of the program since it began in 1981. The McKnight Artist Fellowships Program provides annual, unrestricted cash awards to outstanding mid-career Minnesota artists in 14 different creative disciplines. Program partner organizations administer the fellowships and structure them to respond to the unique challenges of different disciplines. Currently the foundation contributes about $1.7 million per year to its statewide fellowships. For more information, visit mcknight.org/artistfellowships.

The McKnight Fellowship for Book Artists supports the conviction that the arts cannot flourish or enhance community life without the ideas, energy, and drive of individual artists, and that artists cannot make these contributions without unfettered creative time.

The goal of the McKnight Fellowship for Book Artists program is to identify talented Minnesota based book artists whose work is of exceptional artistic merit and who are at a career stage that is beyond emerging. The fellowship program supports two established artists per year by providing significant financial assistance, creating opportunities to meet with local and national art professionals, organizing a panel featuring the fellows and invited critics, and working with the fellows to create an individualized professional development plan.

The MCBA-administered fellowship program utilizes an independent jury of three arts professionals to competitively award two fellowships. The fellowships run for one year, from August 2020 – July 2021 and include:

- $25,000 (unrestricted) Fellowship funding to allow artists to set aside time for study, reflection, opportunities, new projects, experimentation, and exploration. Awards are subject to state and federal tax guidelines.
- Two studio visits with a selected art critic/curator/arts professional.
- $2,000 travel stipend to attend a book arts conference such as CODEX, College Book Art Association (CBAA), New York Art Book Fair, etc.
- Opportunity to participate in a public panel discussion opportunity with selected national artist or critic in the field to develop a dialogue related to their art practice.
- $500 to spend on a custom tutorial with an established artist/practitioner in the field.
- $750 to spend on documentation support (website development, photography, video)
- MCBA Artist Collective membership during fellowship year, which grants unlimited access to MCBA's letterpress, papermaking, and bookbinding studios and equipment.
- Opportunity to attend an artist residency within two years of fellowship program.
iii. Application Selection and Process

Jury Panel:

A three-member panel consisting of experienced and well-respected arts professionals selects the McKnight Book Art Fellows. The jurors are curators, artists (within the book arts field), directors, art critics, and educators with an appreciation for and knowledge of diverse aesthetic perspectives and contemporary art practices. All panelists are from outside the state of Minnesota. Panelists, insofar as possible, will represent a diversity of ages, ethnicity, gender, and geography.

The McKnight Book Arts Fellowship panelists remain anonymous during the selection process. The names of the panelists are revealed once the fellowship recipients are announced.

Review Process:

Applicants are evaluated and selected based on the quality of their work as evidenced in submitted materials, with most importance given to work samples. Consideration is given to accomplishments to date as well as promise for continued development and the impact the fellowship will have on the artist. The panel will also be asked to consider the breadth of artistic practices among Minnesota artists, which include a wide range of media, aesthetics, and traditions that might be influenced by ethnicity, gender, and geography.

First Round: The jury panel reviews submissions in the form of digital images viewed remotely on a monitor for the first round. The jury panel will score each applicant numerically. In a conference call, the three panelists will discuss the top applicants to determine which applicants will move on to the next round. (Please note that juror monitors are not calibrated).

Applicants will be notified of application status on May 1, 2020.

Second Round: Those applicants receiving the greatest interest will be contacted to schedule studio visits by the jury panel.

Studio Visits for Finalists: The Program Manager will notify by phone the artists identified for final review by Friday, May 1, 2020. Jurors will conduct studio visits between May 12 – May 15, 2020. The Program Manager will work with any finalist whose studio is outside the Twin Cities to make alternative arrangements to meet the jurors.

Two Fellowship Recipients will be determined by the jurors on Friday, May 15.

Notification: Upon completion of the studio visits, the Program Manager will contact the two fellowship recipients and email the other finalists of the juror’s final decision by Friday, May 22, 2020.

MCBA staff who oversee the McKnight Fellowship program do not contribute to the decision-making process or the selection of the McKnight Book Arts Fellows. The role of the staff is to provide clarity for the review process and to ensure that the panel review and discussion proceed in accordance with the program’s guidelines.
iv. Eligibility Requirements

Please read carefully. Applicants who do not meet all of the following criteria and expectations will not be considered and should not apply.

The intent of this program is to recognize and support mid-career artists living and working in Minnesota who demonstrate a sustained level of accomplishment, commitment, and artistic excellence. Artists who are eligible for this fellowships:

- Create work that falls within a book arts context. Book arts is a family of processes that includes but is not limited to letterpress printing, screen printing, intaglio, bookbinding, box-making, papermaking, or paper decoration. Book art, broadly defined, includes work that embodies narrative, instruction, reference, mapping, guides, documentation, and more. It is work that engages the viewer and propels the experience forward through narrative, sequencing, spatial elements, visual or verbal language, temporal, mechanical, aural, typographic, symbolic or material means. As an interdisciplinary art form, book arts may include other mediums such as photography, other forms of printmaking, installation, sculpture, and film.
- Are at least 18 years old and a resident of Minnesota, as determined by voting and/or payment of taxes in the state. Applicant must also have a street mailing address within Minnesota to be eligible to apply.
- Have lived in the state of Minnesota at minimum the twelve months prior to the application deadline and will live in Minnesota for the duration of the fellowship period.
- Be able to provide evidence of professional achievements, such as inclusion in regional or national museum and gallery exhibitions and receipt of other awards, grants, and fellowships.
- Have at least eight (8) years of professional experience, preferably in group and/or solo shows. Exhibitions undertaken as part of a degree-seeking program at an institution of higher learning will not be considered, i.e. senior or thesis exhibitions, juried student shows, etc.
- Demonstrate a sustained level of accomplishment, commitment, and excellence in their work.
- Be willing to participate in all aspects of the fellowship program, including meetings, studio visits by art critics, and a public panel with visiting critics.

Applicants may not:

- Submit works in which the only means of expression is theatre-based performance, ceramics, printmaking, film, or video (exclusively). Other McKnight Fellowships support artists working in these areas.
- Be enrolled in a degree-seeking program, either part-time or full-time, at an institution of higher learning.
- Have received a McKnight Fellowship in any discipline less than five years ago (here defined as from the beginning of previous fellowship year to current application deadline). Anyone who received a fellowship in any discipline in or before 2015 is eligible to apply.
Apply to more than one of the McKnight Fellowships programs in a given year. Doing so will disqualify applicants from consideration in any program in that fellowship year.

- Work as staff or board or be an immediate family member of staff or board of the McKnight Foundation.
- Work as staff or board, or be an immediate family member of staff or board at Minnesota Center for Book Arts.

Applying as a Collaborative Team

While McKnight Fellowships for Book Arts are traditionally awarded to single artists, we recognize that there are many contemporary artists who work as collaborative teams. If you are applying as a collaborative, make sure each artist involved meets the eligibility requirements. The images you submit should be of work created by the collaborative, not by the artists individually. Please include one résumé for the collaborative, plus one résumé for each of its members, in a single multi-page document. Do not use your names, rather, distinguish between the résumés by using generic titles, such as, “Artists A and B,” “Artist A,” and “Artist B.”

Photo documentation:

Books: Numerous books and articles are available on the subject of digital photography and imaging. A trip to the local bookstore or camera shop, a visit to amazon.com, or an Internet search for something like "take good digital photographs" or "scanning slides" should turn up plenty of information sources.

Digital Photography: An Introduction by Tom Ang is a helpful guide to the basics of the medium. Chapters 3 and 4 are especially helpful for turning your existing images into digital files. It retails for about $15.

Probably the most widespread and one-stop option, these stores have computers with Adobe Photoshop and Microsoft Word, can scan your slides or photographs and burn CDs. Visit www.fedex.com to find the location nearest you.

Digital Imaging Software: There are a variety of products that can help you format your images successfully. Packaged software is available to purchase as well as free downloadable software. Recently various websites are offering online image editing tools as well.

Adobe currently provides two photo editing products--Adobe Photoshop and Adobe Elements--that are very popular among today’s designers and artists. Adobe Elements, the less-expensive option, provides a free 30-day trial if you would like to try the program before purchasing.

Get Paint, a free open-source program for Windows-based computers, can also help to format images successfully. If you are a Mac user, download Gimp [http://www.gimp.org], a useful image-editing program.

Sumo, Aviary [http://aviary.com/home], and Pixlr [http://www.pixlr.com] are some of the few websites out there that offer image-editing right in the browser.
